

Understanding Criminal Records Interactive Worksheet

MOLLY is a 45-year-old woman with a felony conviction for petty theft with a prior for stealing golf clubs worth $700. She is still on probation. She wants to obtain a copy of her RAP sheet. A few years ago she was denied employment because of an arrest on her commercial background check that never led to a conviction. She still has a copy of that background check company's information.

1. Is Molly eligible for Prop 47? Does the judge have to grant the reclassification?
2. How can Molly obtain copies of her RAP sheets?
3. Should her arrest be showing up on her background check?
4. How can Molly correct the error on her background check?
